Accuracy, Quality, Reliability

Features such as automatic check digit calculation, quiet zone allocation as well as a check on the size of your barcode and even the format of the data help ensure that your barcode will be fit for purpose; providing you with the expertise and knowledge of a bureau service around the clock.

Instant: Barcodes can be ordered, created and delivered within seconds on a 24/7 basis - 365 days a year.

Lack of obsolescence: Continually enhanced to include new types of barcode and changes to existing standards allows you the confidence that your barcodes always meet the latest standards - unlike software packages which can become outdated or incomplete.

Tailored for you: Customise the system to suit your needs; you choose which range of barcodes you want available, the size you want them.

Axicon was the first company to be awarded the much coveted status of Accredited Solution provider by GS1 UK giving you the peace of mind that every barcode created conforms to global standards
